PARTY DRESS OF PLUM-COLORED VELVET, TRIMMED WITH APPLIQUED BANDS OF SATIN.

3

THE CASTS NOW COMPLETE.

NO DESCENDANT BEARING THE NAME OF PRISCILLA ALDEN TO BE FOUND.

THE LAST OF THE REHEARSALS FOR THE CAR-

NIVAL OF AMERICAN HISTORY ARE CALLED. The rehearsals for the Carnival of History to be given by the National Society of New-England Women on November 30 are almost over, to the immense relief of a large number of hard-working rehearsal yesterday. To-day there will be one or two more stage rehearsals of other scenes, and to-morrow the society will rest on its oars and eat its Thanksgiving dinner in peace; for there will be nothing more to do but to finish up details of cos-tume and attend the dress rehearsal.

Four scenes-the two Pilgrim scenes, the 12 scene and the Thanksgiving dinner-had their s

MISS LILAH WETHERBEE

THE PEOPLE WHO TAKE PART The casts for all these four scenes are now practically complete, and the society has had great success in securing lineal descendants for them. Al-most the only exceptions are in the cases of those characters, such as Governor Carver, who had no descendants.

The Mayflower Society has had several descendants to choose from for almost every charracter, and therefore has been able to secure a satisfactory amount of resemblance in personal appearance to the original.

H. H. GOOD.

The cast for the first scene, "The Pligrim Sabbath," is as follows: John Carver, Arthur E. Coe, William Bradford, Dr. J. Dougal Bissell; Elder Brewster, William P. H. Bacon, of Bronaville; Miles Standish, J. Miles Standish, of the Massachusetts Mayflower Society; John Alden, John Alden, John Howland, John Howland; Prisellia Mullers, Margaret Alden Lawrence; Mrs. Brewster, Mrs. Frank Trowbridge, Mrs. Winslow, Miss White; Mrs. Carver, Mrs. C. H. Brown; Mrs. Chillon, Miss Anna Balley, and Mary Chilton, Miss Edwards.

White; Mrs. Carver, Mrs. C. H. Brown; Mrs. Chliton, Miss Anna Balley, and Mary Chilion, Miss Edwards.

The part of Governor Winslow will probably be taken by Marshall Winslow Green, a collateral descendant, unless a lineal descendant presents himself before next Tuesday night. There are three lineal descendants on the roll of the society, but unhapplity, they are all women.

In the second scene, "The Marriage of John Alden and Priscilla," Mr. Coe will be John Alden and Miss Lawrence Priscilla, while various Brewsters, Bradfords, Tillys, etc., will be represented by Mrs. Alma B. Strong, Miss Lilla Manning Briggs, the Rev. Brady Backus, Edward Addison Greeley, Miss Edna Greene and others.

Mrs. Russell Sage is the chaperon of these scenes.

THE THANKSGIVING SCENE.

In the Thanksgiving scene William De Haven will take the part of Jonathan Warren, the grandfather of the family group, and Mrs. Hardy. Mrs. Willlam Gerry Slade's mother, will be Abigail Warren, will the grandmother. Miss Kitty Gillespie will be to the Dorothy Warren; Miss Edna Earle, Ruth Warren; ave.

Mitchell Hall, Samuel Warren; J. Parmley Paret, Uncle Joseph Warren; Mrs. Carrie Edwards, Aunt Roxie, and Mrs. Allen C. Nye, Jerusha White, a cousin from New-York, All of these actors are real Warren descendants.

Mrs. Allen T. Nye is the chaperon of the scene, and Mrs. John T. Van Sickle, Mrs. Henry Pierce, Mrs. Paul A. Meyrowitz and Mrs. Charles Henry Brush are her assistants.

The 1812 scene, "The Presentation of the Freedom of the City of New-York to Commodore Isaac Hull," will be participated in by twenty-five men, the part of Commodore Hull being taken by Chief Engineer Louis J. Allen, of the United States Navy.

Although eighteen women have been found who are descendants of the original Priscilla, not one of them bears the name Priscilla Alden, so that considerable dismay has been felt at being unable to personify the character in its entirety, as to name and birth.

THE DAY'S GOSSIP.

The first regular meeting of the Knickerbocker Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution will be held this afternoon, at No. 226 West Flifty-eighth-st., for the purpose of commemorating

At the members' meeting of the Civitas Club of Brookiyn, which will be held to-day in the club process, No. 169 Joralemon-st., papers will be read by Mrs. Katherine Perry, Miss Edith Squires and Mrs. John Kerr. The subject will be "Famous Women of To-day."

The Wednesday Afternoon Club, which is one of the oldest and best-known women's clubs in Montclair, N. J., has arranged a new programme of its weekly meetings. Topics are suggested by previous studies in history, art and literature. During the coming season five meetings will be devoted to history, five to art, five to folk-lore and ten to literature. The club officers for the year are: Mrs. J. Trippett, president; Mrs. S. P. Marshall, vice-president; Mrs. William Miller, secretary, and Mrs. C. T. Churchill, treasurer.

The programme of the Jamaica Chautauqua Circle for this evening will be as follows: Each member to describe, concisely, in the first person, noted character, the name to be guessed by members of the civile. Chapter IX, in "Imperial Germann," explained by Miss D. R. Turner. Chapter X, in "Social Spirit in America," explained by Miss beautiful cover, that is at once lasting and artistic beautiful cover, that is at once lasting and artistic beautiful cover, that is at once lasting and artistic beautiful cover, that is at once lasting and artistic beautiful cover, that is at once lasting and artistic beautiful cover, that is at once lasting and artistic beautiful cover, that is at once lasting and artistic beautiful cover, that is at once lasting and artistic beautiful cover, that is at once lasting and artistic beautiful cover. her to describe, concisely, in the first person, some

"Unity in Variety," is the subject upon which the Swami Abdehananda will talk to-night at Mott

Miss Charlotte Sulley has been engaged by the College of Music in Newark, N. J., to take charge of the elecution department.

At the Pouch Mansion, this evening, will be given the annual promenade concert and reception for the benefit of St. Mary's Hospital.

A mass-meeting of Salvationists is called for this vening, and will be held at Carnegie Hall, for the purpose of explaining a movement to establish a corps of trained nurses in the East Side tenement

The Brooklyn Dog Show will open to-day in the 13th Regiment Armory, and will continue until Saturday night. This is the second annual show given by the Metropolitan Kennel Cub.

The Rev. Anna H. Shaw, of Chicago, expresses a wish to be appointed to the police staff of that city. She has declared that several hundred women taken from the ranks of the Salvation Army and the American Volunteers would serve in this

The boys of the Tompkins Square Boys' Lodgng House of the Children's Aid Society, at Eighthst. and Avenue B, were treated to some choice vocal music at their regular Sunday night service by the German-American Society. There was a large attendance of the boys who, friendless and homeless, make this lodging-house their temporary abade, and they thoroughly enjoyed the excellent selections of music rendered, and appreciated the kindness shown by the good friends who came to give them a pleasant evening. J. H. Steuhl, a member of the singing society, made a brief speech, assuring the boys that it was a real pleasure for his society to be present at their service. He promised, on behalf of his friends, to meet them again some Sunday evening during the winter. Superintendent M. Dupuy also addressed the boys, urging upon them the necessity of becoming useful members of society.

A new class in the Saturday extension work at Teachers' College has just begun, the class in mechanical drawing. Early in the season there were not sufficient applications for such work to warrant its organization, but recently the demand for a course in working drawings and developments especially adapted to the needs of teachers in the public schools of New-York City has been as argent that it was deemed expedient to offer it without delay. Applicants will be received any Saturday morning, from 19 to 12 o'clock. The fee is $5.

The Dames of the Revolution met yesterday afternoon at No. 64 Madison-ave. The society will meet every Tuesday afternoon during the winter.

Miss Beatrix Venners, of Brooklyn, sails for Liverpool to-day on the steamer St. Louis. She will be gone two years and will travel much on the Conti-nent.

The Ladies' Dorcas Society of the Lenox Avenue Union Church held a "Klondike sociable" last night

The Church of the Ascension, Mount Vernon, had a special musical service on Surday evening, one of its lending features being the singing by Miss Pfell of selections from the "Stabat Mater." Miss-pfell is a Mount Vernonite and spent ten years of study in Germany.

OFFICERS OF THE FLOWER MISSION.

The new officers of the West Side Fruit and Flower Mission, No. 312 West Fifty-fourth-st., are Flower Mission, No. 312 West Fifty-fourth-st., are as follows: President, Mrs. George Morgan Browne; vice-president, Mrs. Richard M. King; treasurer, Mrs. LeRoy Cox; recording secretary, Mrs. George Waddington; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William L. Elsefer; chalrman of the Distributing Committee. Miss Jeanle Duncan. To-day there will be a continuation of the Thanksgiving distribution at the rooms. Donations of cooked food, warm clothing and delicacies for invalids and aged people will be gratefully received. Money should be sent to the treasurer, Mrs. LeRoy Cox, No. 449 Parkaya.

THE MONTE RELIEF SOCIETY.

THANKSGIVING DINNERS FURNISHED TO THE POOR AND NEEDY.

curious spectacle was observed all day yes terday on Fifty-eighth-st., between Lexington and Third aves. There were women of all kinds and ages, for the most part ill-dressed and bearing all the unmistakable evidences of poverty. These were endeavoring to form a line that entered the Terrace Garden. The women, old and young, had big market baskets and were all chattering away good-naturedly and expectantly. There were bright looks on wan faces, and an air of cheerfulness inconsistent with their appearance. The occasion of this collecting of so many women and children was the annual pre-Thanksgiving distribution of donations by the Monte Reilef Society of New-York City.

Over five hundred needy and destitute person were supplied with a big market basket full of tea, coffee, butter, potatoes, bread and other substantial edibles and elements of food. The people formed and passed through the large dance hall of the Terrace Garden, and after their baskets vere filled they filed out on the Fifty-ninth-st. side. Before the applicants are allowed in the large distribution hall, they are compelled to display certain tickets and vouchers that have been given to them by those who have investigated their cases and found them worthy of charity.

The women in the line that came from out of the Fifty-ninth-st exits fairly staggered under their heavy loads. There was much laughter and happiness everywhere. Those who lived at a distance and had to take a car were given their car fares both coming and going. The distribution centinued all the afternoon. The society is strictly a charitable one and makes these distributions on Washington's Birinday, Easter and Thanksgiving Day. It strives to inculcate self-helpfulness in the people it benefits, purchases things made by the poor people and gives work to all the needy that it can. The president is Mrs. Leoburger: vice-president. Mrs. Sugarman; recording secretary, Mrs. Techner; financial secretary, Mrs. Leotuser, Mrs. Lohnstein. The trustees are Mrs. Boxius, Mrs. Velss and Mrs. Soi, Heyman. The guides are Mrs. J. Heuberger, Mrs. J. Heuberger, J. Levy.

Besides the officers above mentioned there were play certain tickets and vouchers that have been

Sol. Heyman. The guides are Mrs. J. Hedderker, Mrs. Jules Simon, Mrs. Samuel Meyer and Mrs. J. Levy. Besides the officers above mentioned there were engaged in the distribution Mrs. Del Monte, Mrs. J. Blum, Mrs. Neuweldt, Mrs. Adler, Mrs. Gross and Miss Dora Kahn,

MRS. GEORGE D. SWEETSER DEAD

THE WORKING GIRLS LOSE ONE OF THEIR REST ERIENDS

Mrs. George D. Sweetser, the great friend of the working girl, is dead. "Love your neighbor as yourself," was truly demonstrated in her charitable works. Many a tear will be shed in the humble homes that have received relief through her, good woman had always the welfare of the working girl and saleswoman at heart. An instance of her charity in this respect may now be in order to While shopping at one of the drygoods stores in the city she noticed the pallid look de-picted on several of the girls' faces, and one in particular, in her efforts to perform her duties, attracted her attention. While waiting on a customer the poor girl fainted from fatigue, having stood on her feet for several hours. The rigid rule of the drygoods houses at that time prohibited all sales-women from sitting down. Mrs. Sweetser's heart was filled with sympathy for this poor girl, and after doing what she could for her she immediately sought the proprietor of the store. On her way to the office she met some of her influential friends, charitably inclined like herself, and to them she related the instance. They immediately formed themselves into a committee and waited on the proprietor, who, after hearing their story, was not indifferent to the situation, and gave orders that the duties of the saleswomen should be made lighter by directing that thereafter scats should he provided for them. This is related to show that Mrs. Sweetser was instrumental in having the law passed for drygoods houses to provide seats for their employes. tracted her attention. While waiting on a customer

BEAUTIFUL BOOK COVERS.

MISS NORDHOFF, BOOKBINDER, GIVES AN EXHIBITION OF HER WORK.

Miss Evelyn Hunter Nordhoff is an artist who de velops her fancies in leather. In her studio at No. 29 Washington Square many specimens of her handlwork are on exhibition, and in a talk with Tribune reporter she told of her fendness for he

"I am a bookbinder," she said, "and I took up the business principally because of my fondness for books. I love them so! They are real friends and should be taken care of with genuine appreciation.

"When did you first take up bookbinding "About eight years ago. I spent six months with the great publishing firm of Cobden-Sanderson, in London, and what I learned there has been invaluable to me. I really like to make a book-get the sheets from the publisher, refold them and bind them. It is difficult work, and as many as thirty five or forty processes have to be gone before the binding of a book is really finished. I walt and see whether the book is to live and be I have a young Canadian girl with me learning bind books, and she is an apt pupil. I am fond of teaching, and have some promising pupils, but Miss Prat, my Canadian assistant, does exceptionally good work. She will take a book that is torn and mend it so carefully and neatly one can scarcely tell where it was injured. She really 'darns' the leaves, and splits bits of paper and inserts them in the torn places in the most heautiful way. "Then I have a class of children in the Sullivan

Street School of the Children's Ald Society. They do well and have made some really pretty little do well and have made some really pretty little holiday gifts, which I have on sale here for them. I do a good deal of etching, and I make my own designs. I paint and variable the leather myself and stamp it with any design I wish."

Miss Nordhoff them showed her work to the reporter. There were book covers that could not wear out, made of cowskin or sole leather. Miss Nordhoff prefers the rich, deep colors that will hold their own for a century. One of the objects in the exhibit was a large fire screen of beaten. Stamped and painted leather, representing a phenta rising from the thimes. An ornamental table was made entirely of leather in a soft tan shade. Aside from numerous book covers in delicate shades cream, pale rose and water green—there were calendar frames, photograph frames, collar and coaf boxes, pen wipers, letter racks, pitress, waitets, card cases, tobacco pouches, workbaskets, belts, match boxes, slippers stampbooks and sofa pillows, all of leather, in many soft shades and showing original and quaint designing. The Australian glory pea was conventionalized and used in the ornamentation of the fancy leather table; z byllows showed a peafowl's tall painted in the natural colors. A footstool had a border of squash blooms and leaves and budes running around it; the design was copied from nature.

One of Dr. T. F. Allen's books was bound in and buds running around it; the design was copied from nature.

One of Dr. T. F. Allen's books was bound in calfskin, showing water blessoms on a cream ground. The lining was pale water green. Miss Nordhoff did all the etchings in this dainty volume, telling the history of the water plants of America.

Some of the designs on some imported Japanese leather for bindings showed queer, fascinating goblins and griffins and dragons, fresh from the hand of the cunning Japanese artificer. The leather is painted deerskin and is as soft and beautiful as fine French feit. The looze leathers in all shades look like velvet and feel like softest fur. Miss Nordhoff buys most of her leather in New-York, except the Morocco and the Japanese deerskin.

CLUBS AND LECTURES IN ORANGE. The Woman's Club of Orange, N. J., which cele brated jast May its twenty-fifth anniversary, has an active membership of three hundred. Its work is conducted by six departments, each of which has regular meetings, as follows: Art-Mrs. Stewart Harshorn, Miss S. A. Dunn first Tuesday of each month, 3 p. m

Current Events-Miss E. H. S. Shelton, Mrs. J N. Dorr; second Monday of each month, 2:30 P. N. Dorr; second allows.

Economics—Sara C. Spottiswoode, Mrs. Charles A. Savage, Mrs. Sylvester Judd; third or fourth Wednesday, 3:39 p. m.
Education—Mrs. H. C. Weils, Eliza B. Phelps. M. D. Miss S. Louise Phelps; first Monday of each month, 2:15 p. m.
Literature—Mrs. D. A. Kennedy, Miss Agnes Woodruff, Miss Emma L. Codey; Wednesday, alternating with club meeting, 19 a. m.
Science—Mrs. Chandler Sexton, Mrs. E. W. Coggeshall, Mrs. J. O. Alexander; every Friday 10:39 a. m.

Coggestian, are.

10:39 a. miar meetings of the club are held on The regular meetings of the club are held on alternate Wednesdays. Two courses of lectures are planned for the season. Leon H. Vincent will give a series of addresses on literary topics. Application for visitors' cards should be made to Mrs. George A. Vail, chairman of the introduction Committee. An address by Miss Alice Fletcher is also expected. militee. An address of New-Jersey, for the Expected.

The Audubon Society of New-Jersey, for the protection of birds, is represented in the club by militage Sara A. Dunn. The president of the club is Mrs. Juliet C. Cushing.

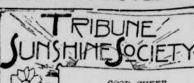

WOMEN'S PAGE APPRECIATED.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: I am a daily reader of The Tribune, and am deeply interested in the Sunshine Society. It is worthy of highest praise. Truly yours, Mrs. L. T. D.

West Stockbridge, Berkshire County, Mass.

Sir: Our family has taken The Tribune from its first number. The Woman's Page, with its helpful hints, and the Sunshine column, with its rays of comfort and gladness, reaching so many "shutins," make it doubly interesting. Truly yours, Bloomfeld, N. J. To the Editor of The Tribune.

Have you had a kindness shown?
Pass it on.
Twas not given for thee alone—
Pass it on.
Let it travel down the years.
Let it wipe another's tears.
Till in heaven the deed appears—
Pass it on.

Communications have been received from Mrs. Mary E. Birch, M. P. Britt, John Krell, Charles A. King, Sara Williams Vanderbeck, Mrs. J. Edgar L., "Bath Beach," M. M. B., Maude E. Young, Mrs. Albert S. Roe, T. R. Bernrose, Gertrude Adams, Miss Martha T. Findley, Desier Clapp Moulton, Mrs. W. H. Simonson and Mrs. V. M. Totten.

The following contributions have been receive at the Sunshine office: A package of pretty silk pieces from Mrs. G. W. Loysradt, a large box of Christmas greens tied in bunches from T. with a card attached on which is penned some beautiful quotation. A. S. Thompson sent a pack-age of pretty pictures, some Woman's Pages and several numbers of "The Christian Herald."

Miss Minnie Conran, of Church-st., Naugatuck Conn., returns sincere thanks for the reading matter, letter and poems sent by the T. S. S. and that every morning loving friends pin her T. S. S. badge on her dress, as her crippled hands are useless. The badge to her seems as "a crown of sunshine while she bears the cross."

The President-General hope: that the T. S. S. will remember this helpless one, and especially at Christmas time kind hearts will give of their abundance some little gift to brighten her life.

The dollar sent by Mrs. A. S. Roe as a Thanks-giving gift to Mrs. Kimball, of East Hebron, N. H., has been forwarded.

Mrs. Emilie D. Martin, superintendent of the de partment of work for the Promotion of Purity in Literature and Art of the National W. C. T. U., recently made a speech at the New-York County Convention of the W. C. T. U. Her subject was The Tribune Sunshine Society," its excellence and general helpfulness to a class into whose not much sunshine falls. Mrs. Martin distributed slips setting forth the object and aim of the society, which now numbers several thouand members, representing almost every n the Union, as well as various foreign

Olive Young, of No. 110 Ravine-ave., Yonkers, N. Y., has sent parkages of slik pieces to Dorcas Anderson, and if she will forward a bundle to "Uncle Dan," president of the Evans, Col., T. S. S. branch, he will distribute them among several old women members who are making pretty Christmas things out of them. "Uncle Dan" keeps chickens, and no out of them. "Uncle Dan" keeps chickens, and no doubt he would like the papers giving instructions on how to care for them.

Olive is saving pretty scraps for doll clothes. Any member who wants to help her distribute sunshine can do so by forwarding scraps for clothes or recipes for candy-making, for she is going to make up a lot of candy for Santa Claus.

"Thoughts," which have been forwarded to a Sunshine member.

J. W. G. asks for a copy of the poem "One Year, but she does not give her address so that it can be mailed to her.

Mrs. Henry Kellogg English, of Waterbury, Conn. is welcomed into the society. Will she please send her Christmas doll to the Sunshine headquarters? Irma Baker, of Chautauqua, N. Y., is accepted as

Will Mrs. A. S. L. please inform the President-General if she has received her badge?

Mrs. Charles A. Savage, of No. 48 Highland-ave. Orange, N. J.-The address of Walter Clyde Spaulding is Hartland, Vt., but Walter has been supplied with "The Youth's Companion." Please write to the Kramer children, of Governor's Island, N. Y. There are three of them, Lulu, Florence and Henry, ten, nine and eight years old, and unless somehody is sending them. The Youth's Companion. Without reporting the fact, they will be delighted to receive your contribution, for they get little reading matter. The members of the Sunshine Committee of your Junior Christian Endeavor Society are all entitled to membership in the T. S. If they report their work to the President-General, so that a record can be kept of it. As initiation fee, may might unite in buying a doll for a "Little Mother at Christmas time. Send their names and addresses with initiation fee, and badges, will be forwarded. Scrapbooks are also accepted as Initiation fees. They might send a doll, a few pleture books and some scrapbooks to little Svick Andreae and Ora Darby, two little girls who live in a mining camp way out in the Rocky Mountains. The address is Ohio City, Col. If the Sunshine Committee should send these soon they will reach Ohio City surely by Christmas time. The snow is so deep out there on the other side of the snowy range that Santa Claus seldom trusts his reindeers in that country. with "The Youth's Companion." Please write to

Mrs. E. B. T., of No. 159 West Twelfth-st., city, will send the Woman's Pages to anybody who wants them. She sends a word game, which is as represented in the assemblage, which filled every

Two words are given of an equal number of letters, and the problem is to change one to the other by altering one letter at a time of the first so as to make a legitimate English word, continuing the alterations until the desired result is attained, and ecomplishing this with the smallest number of hinges.

changes.

As simple examples, change east to west. East, vast, vest, west. Dog to cat. Dog, cog, cot, cat. Try soup to fish, road to rail, milk to hash, lamp to shad, love to hate, time to week and head to oot.

Mrs. E. B. T. sends the information that "Little ourneys to the Homes of Good Men and Great," by Shert Hubbard, gives Wordsworth as the author f "Such light ne'er seen on land or sea."

THE TRIBUNE PATTERN.

A TISSUE-PAPER PATTERN OF A FUR COL-LARETTE, NO. 7.223, FOR COUPON AND TEN CENTS.

No feature of the season is more noticeable than the preference shown for collarettes of all sorts. The one here pictured is stylish, at the same that it is easily made. The fitted collar and yoke portion is cut in sections, and may be either tabbed at the neck and pointed at the lower edge or plainly finished after the manner of the back. The deep fall of fur is attached to the foundation at deep fall of fur is attached to the foundation at the round edge or beneath the points. The entire ape is lined with silk, with the exception of the deep yoke and high standing collar are of astrakhan, the cape portion of long-haired fur; but various comthe cape portion of long-naired cur; but various com-binations and materials are equally suitable. Seal plush or velours with fur is always good, and old-fashloned capes and jackets of both genuine and electric seal can be remodelled with certain suc-cess. To make the collarette for a woman of medium size will require one and one-half yards of twenty-two-inch or seven-eighths of a yard of fifty-four-inch material. The pattern, No. 7,223, is cut in sizes for a 32, 35 and 40 inch bust measure.

COUPON ENTITLING TO ONE PATTERN ANY SIZE OF NO. 7,223. Cut this out, fill in your name and address, and mail it to THE PATTERN DEPARTMENT OF THE TRIBUNE.

Inclose 10 cents to pay mailing and handling expenses for each pattern wanted.

WEDDINGS PAST AND TO COME

One of the prettlest and most picturesque wed

was crowded to the doors, but it was only a few minutes of a o'clock when the bride, preceded by the bridesmaids, ushers and maid of honor, left the corridor of the church for the chancel. The white marble altar was decorated with two vases filled with white chrysanthemums, while the space on both sides of it were filled with tall, graceful palms, and the railing was banked with a forest of green in which were here and there single white chrysanthemums. The effect of the green and white was rich. On the posts of the pews along the middle aisle were clusters of white carysan-themums tied with broad green ribbons. White the guests were being shown to their seats by the ushers, Mr. Warren, the organist, gave some delightful music, including selections from "Tan-hauser," "Romeo and Juliet," "Faust" and some other operas. The ushers, who wore in the left lappel of their frock coats huge boutonnieres of white carnations, and in their white satin puffed scarfs pins of turquoise, presented to them by the bridegroom, were Rene Moen, who took the place of R. Clifford Black, jr.; F. Louis Slade, the Rev. Carroll Perry, Lloyd Van Deventer, Howard Wilson, Dr. Vanderpoel Adriance, Howard C. Smith Franklin A. Plummer, Dr. Edwin Holmes and Theodore M. Taft. A few minutes before the bride arrived at the church the organist began the march from "Alda," and the bridesmaids, attired in handsome gowns of white mousseline de sole over silk, the skirts ruffled and trimmed with pink velvet, belts and stocks, and short white tulle veils fastened with white algreties, came from the vestry and walked up the middle alsle to the main door, where they met the bride and her maid of honor, Miss Louise De Barry. The latter was in an effective gown of heavy white corded silk with short tulle veil, and she carried a bouquet of deep pink carnations. The bridesmalds carried bouquets of daybreak pink carnations, and each wore on her corsage a handsome pin of pearls and amethysts, a gift from the bride. The bridal gown was of white satin, made without trimming, the yoke being of finely tucked mousseline de scie. At the throat was worn a brooch of diamonds, a gift from the bridegroom, whose best man was his brother, Lewis Witherbee Francis. The bouquet was of white orchids and lilles of the valley, and the veil of white tulle was arranged with orange blossoms. The bridesmalds, who led the procession to the chancel, were Miss Elizabeth R. Francis, Miss Edith Hyde, of Plainfield, N. J.; Miss May Chittenden, of Brooklyn; Miss Louise Van Insen, Miss Helen Miller and Miss Sarah Devoe. Behind these young women came the ushers, then the mald of honor and finally the handsome bride, with her father, who gave her away. The betrothal service was read at the foot of the chancel step by the father of the bridegroom, and the marriage ceremony was performed in front of the altar by the rector, the new for the bridegroom, was also in the chancel of the bridegroom, was also in the chancel missed of the bridegroom, was also in the chancel of the brides of the b silk, with short tulle vell, and she carried a bou-quet of deep pink carnations. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of daybreak pink carnations, and Another large and fashionable wedding yesterday afternoon was celebrated at 3 o'clock in St. George's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Stuyvesant Square. The bride was Miss Louise Shaw Barlow, daughter of the late Francis C. Barlow, and the bridegroom Pierre Jay, a son of the late Peter Augustus Jay. New-York society was well seat in the church. The ceremony was performed by the rector, the Rev. Dr. William S. Rainsford, who was assisted by the Rev. Endicott Peabody, of the Groton School, Groton, Mass. The bride, who was given away by her brother, wore a gown of ivory white satin, trimmed with old lace, and a veil of the same, caught up with orange blessoms. Her bridesmaids were the bride's cousins. Miss Gertrude and Miss Mildred Minturn; Miss Cornelia Van Rensselaer Robb, and the bridegroom's sister. Miss Mary R. Jay. These young women received Miss Mary R. Jay. These young women received as convenirs from the bride heart-shaped pins of turquoise and pearls. Mr. Jay's best man was John Jay, and the ushers were Howell Cheney, of South Manchester, Mass.; R. H. Munro Ferguson, Meredith Hare, Charles Lowell Barlow, a cousin of the bride; Montgomery Hare, ir. and J. Sandford Barnes. The reception after the ceremony was held at the home of Mrs. Barlow, the bride's mother, No. 35 East Thirty-first-st. As the Earlow family is in mourning, only relatives and personal friends were invited to the house. Some of the guests were Mrs. Francis George Shaw, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell Lowell, Miss Lowell, Mrs. Robert B. Minturn, Dr. and Mrs. F. K. Sturgis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sturgis, Mrs. Robert Sedgwick, Miss Alice Jay, Mr. and Mrs. Ferpont, William Jay Schieffelin, Mrs. William H. Schieffelin, Miss Adams, of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Sedgwick, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Serysmer, Mr. and Mrs. Pellew, of Washington; Mrs. Lewis Livingston Delafield, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Livingston Delafield, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Post, Lewis Li, Delafield, Monsignor Seton, Mrs. Garretson, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Jevons, John C. Jay, Ir. Miss Edith Jay, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Post, J. Pierpont Morgan, Ir. and Joseph H. Choate. After their honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Jay will make their home at No. 53 East Thirtieth-st. as convenirs from the bride heart-shaped pins of In St. Agnes's Chapel, Trinity Parish, West Ninety-second-st., yesterday afternoon, took place

Ninety-second-st., yesterday afternoon, took place the marriage of Miss Essie Morgan Squier, daugh-ter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Craig Squier, of No. 30 West Eighty-second-st., to Franklin Edson, jr., a son of ex-Mayor Edson, of this city. The mar-riage ceremony was performed by the vicar of the chapel, the Rev. Dr. Edward A. Bradley, and was accompanied by a full choral service by the boy choir of the chapel. The hymn "Oh, Perfect Leve" was sums as the choristers left the vestry Love," was sung as the choristers left the vestry Love," was sung as the choristers left the vestry to meet the bridal party in the middle alse, and as the procession passed up to the altar the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" was sung. After the betrothal service the well-known anthem, "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden," was given. The bride, who was escorted by her father, wore a gown of white satin, trimmed with orange blossoms, and a tulle vell, held in place by a diamond star, a present from the bridegroom. She carried an ivory bound prayer-book. The maid of honor, Miss Catherine Craig Squier, sister of the bride, wore a gown of white satin and lace, covered with net and she carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. Her hat of pink velvet was anorned with plumes. The bridesmalds were another sister of the bride, Miss Hester Squier; Miss Ethel Edson, Sisters of the bridegroom; Miss Elizabeth Henderson, of Yonkers; Miss Mary Paul Robeson, of Philadelphia; Miss Margaret Robert, of Phatbush, and Miss Heien Mohr. The best man was Henjamin W. Schwab, and the ushers were William C. Squier, brother of the bride; Robert Stewart Edson and Dr. David Orr Edson, brothers of the bridegroom; William C. Cammann, John G. McIntyre, Frank Hagemayer, Charles E. Milmine and Worthinston Whitehouse. Among the guests at the ceremony and reception, which followed at the home of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Seymour Houghton; Mrs. William Squier, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Squier, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Francis La Frederick C. Squier, Mr. and Mrs. Francis La Frederick C. Squier, Mr. and Mrs. Francis La Francis La William T. Wardwell, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Edson and Mr. and Mrs. Prancis C. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Layde Steison, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Layde Steison, Mr. and Mrs. Edson will make their home on the West Bide.

The wedding of Miss Annie Kendall Wilson, Mr. Alexander Edson will make their home on the West Bide. to meet the bridal party in the middle aisle, and The wedding of Miss Annie Kendall Wilson

The wedding of and Mrs. Alexander Wilson, of No. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Wilson, of No. 148 West One-hundred-and-twentieth-st., to John Sands Howell took place at 8 o'clock last evening in Holy Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Lenox ave. and One-hundred-and-twenty-second-st. The Rev. Dr. Charles De Witt Bridgman, the rector, performed the ceremony, which was followed by a supper at the home of the bride's parents. The maid of honor was Miss Charlotte A. Wilson, of Kingston, N. Y. and the bridesmalds were Miss Edith Lansing Wemple, Miss Katherine Ver Planck Colvin, Miss Annie Ethel Burres, Miss Martha Meyer, Miss Edith Servous and Miss Lotta Hamil-ton, of Englewood, N. J. The best man was Reuben

J. Abbott, and the ushers were George Radford. A Castle Postley, Harry Hilliker, Arthur Livings of Guckhout, Alfred Stanley and Howard E. Crail.

Miss Jeannette Kempner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Kempner, of No. 51 East Sixty-first-st.,

dings of the present autumn season was that of Miss Helen Clifford Page, the only daughter of J. Seaver Page, to Arthur Wheeler Francis, son of the Rev. Lewis Francis, of Brooklyn, and grandson of the late Silas H. Witherbee, of this city, which was celebrated yesterday afternoon in St. Eartholwas married to Henry Manne at 6 o'clock last even-ing in Carnegie Hall. The Rev. Dr. Geismar offici-ated. The wedding of Miss Mary McAnerney, daughter of Colonel John McAnerney, to Lorenzo Semple omew's Protestant Episcopal Church, Madison-ave, and Forty-fourth-st. The hour set for the ceremony was 3:20, and at that time the church will take place quietly this morning in St. Patrick's Cathedrai.

Miss Gertrude Chatillon will be married to Willam H. Klenke this evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Chatillon, No. 16 East Eightleth-at. The ceremony will be followed by a large reception.

Miss Susic Teresa Oakley, the third daughter of the Rev. Dr. J. G. Oakley, of this city, and George Holmes Kingsbury, a teacher in the High School at Binghamton, N. Y., will be married this evening at 8 o'clock in the Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, Washington-ave, and East One-hundred-and-sixty-sixth-st.

The Rev. Joseph D. Peters and Miss Elizabeth Mapes were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mapes, Woodruff-st. and Lillian Place. West Farms, last evening. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Madison C. Peters, assisted by the Rev. Morgan A. Peters, brothers of the bridegroom. The Rev. Joseph D. Peters has just accepted a call to the Reformed Church of Canajoharle, N. Y.

Philadelphia, Nov. 22 .- William E. Frenaye, city ditor of "The Colorado Springs Gazette," was marcanted in this city to-day to Miss Frances Louise Landell, of Philadelphia. The ceremony was per-formed at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in the presence of a large number of friends of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Frenaye started at once for

Washington, Nov. 23 .- Miss May Maude Noble and

James Shanklin Harian were married to-day at St. John's Episcopal Church, in this city. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Belden Noble, of Washingthe daughter of Mrs. Belden Noble, of Washington, and the bridegroom is the son of Associatustice Harlan of the United States Supreme Court, The ushers were Mr. Trask, of New-York, and Messrs. McClaren Sprague, Delavan Smith. McClure and John Harlan, of Chicago, Robert Shanklin, of Chicago, was best man. After a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother the couple started on a wedding trip to Chicago, where they will make their home. Gloucester, Mass., Nov. 23 (Special) .- Harry Gray Chase, a professor in Tufts College, was married to Miss Mary Franklin Cook, daughter of Mayor and

Mrs. Benjamin F. Cook, at 12:30 to-day, in the Universalist Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. E. H. Capen, president of Tutts College, and the Rev. William H. Rider, pastor of the church. The bridesmaids were Miss Eliza I. Chase, of Boston, sister of the bridegroem: Miss Blanche Hooper, of Tutts College: Miss Agnes Copeland, of Reading, and Miss Nettle Folonsbee, of Haverhill. The maid of honor was Miss Eva Lendall Cook, sister of the bride. The best man was Herbert Somerby Chase, of Boston. Boston, Nov. 23 (Special).-The marriage of Miss

Alice Lowell, daughter of Mrs. Edward J. Lowell, to James Hardy Roopes, instructor in New Testa-ment criticism and interpretation, took place in Emmanuel Church to-day at 12:30 o'clock. F. E. Lowell. E. C. Lee, A. L. Ripley, F. L. Coolidge, W. R. Trask and L. T. Dyer, all of Boston; Processor J. W. Platner, of Cambridge, and G. C. Harding, of Pittsfield, were the ushers. The bridegroom was attended by W. F. Richards, of Newport, N. H. The Rev. Leighton Parks read the marriage service. College Hill, Mass., Nov. 23 (Special).-Dr. Thomas Harrison Carmichael and Miss Emily Henrietta Leonard were married this morning in Goddard Chapel, Tufts College. The bride is the only daugh-ter of the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Leonard, dean of ter of the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Leonard, dean of the Divinity School and head assistant in the State Normal School, in Fitchburg. Their union is the outcome of a little romance which had its begin-ning when they were fellow-travelers in Europe. The ushers were Henry L. Rand, William K. Den-ison, Coleman Tousey and Samuel B. Capen. There was no bridesmaid or best man. The father of the bride performed the ceremony.

WOMEN IN THE POSTAL SERVICE.

ABOUT EIGHTY THOUSAND EMPLOYED-THEIR

WORK AS SATISFACTORY AS THAT OF MEN. Washington, Nov. 23 .- First Assistant Postmaster-General Heath has transmitted to the postal admin-istration of the German Government a comprehensive report on the employment of women in the Government service. He says that there are 71.022 possonices in the United States, at each of which there are several employes, who lawfully may be either men or women. Postmasters at third and fourth-class offices select their own employes with-out consulting the Department, and it is accordingly impossible to give the exact number of women em-ployed in the postal service. There are, however, 7,670 women postmasters, and perhaps eighty thousand women to whom the oath of office has been administered to qualify them to assist in conducting the business of the offices. There are 167 women employed in the Postoffice Department proper.

Women, the report says, are employed in all branches of the postal service except as letterbranches of the postal service except as lettercarriers, clerks in the railway mail service and postoffice inspectors. They are not debarred by rule or regulation from entering any branch of the service.
In fact, there are postoffices in the United States at which there are none but women employed. The same salary is paid to them as to men for the same character of work. In the Postoffice Department salaries now paid to women vary from $20 to $1.500 a year, according to the service performed, though there is no rule preventing them from receiving more than that, and as postmasters or assistants they sometimes receive much larger salaries. Some of the most faithful and efficient employes in the postal service are women.

The report says it has been a mooted question for many years with the heads of the executive departments whether women can render as good general service as men, because the latter may be transferred at all times to any positions, whereas women may be confronted with duties in a sense indelicate or which require too much manual labor. But it is seldom that duties devolve on any clerk or officer which cannot be properly performed by women. The conclusion of the Department is that altogether the services of women have proved almost if not equally satisfactory with those of men. The report is based on a request of the German Government as to what has been the general experience of this Government with women employes.

HOW LITTLE THINGS MAKE TROUBLE.

The contention which has arisen in club circles regarding the late federation of clubs at Syracuse and the unpleasantnesses concerning the elections there had been so keenly felt that, in spite of vindications ably sustained for both women concerned, the matter crops up again on every possi occasion. On Monday afternoon Mrs. Helmuth attended the meeting of the Professional Woman's League, and at the request of Mrs. A. M. Palmer, the president, spoke of her election, saying that the fact of her having been elected spoke for itself. No reference was made to Mrs. Lynch, who from other quarters is well defended, the whole misunderstanding being declared to have arisen in some trivial and inexplicable way.

After the usual business of the League's monthly meeting and the remarks made by Mrs. Helmuth and others, the following interesting musical programme was rendered:

"Im Dreigespann," by Mme. A. Prepen; a trio for violin. 'cello and plano, andate, from sonate in F. Major, by Bargiel, played by Miss Janet Allen, violinist; Agnes Dressler, 'cello, and Mrs. Florence Buckingham Joyce, plano, "Be My Love," old English air, sung by Mme. Henrietta Beebe; Mrs. George W. Boscowitz and Miss Fanny M. Spencer, accompanists.

At the next social gathering of the League Miss Spencer, who is chairman of the Music Committee, hopes to give a programme made up entirely of compositions by American women, and performed as far as possible by the composers themselves. occasion. On Monday afternoon Mrs.

WOMEN IN AUBURN PRISON.

Mrs. Ballington Booth and her secretary, Miss Mrs. Ballington Hughes, recently spent a couple of days in Auburn State Prison, and for the first time Mrs. Booth went to the women's prison and personally interviewed several of the women confined there. viewed several of the women confined there. Unlike the men, they showed no enthusiasm or desire to do better, nor did they express any sorrow for the past. They were glad somebody came to break the monotony of their lives, but that was all. Mrs. Booth saw this, and, as she afterward confessed, her heart sank within her; but she had their attention and as she talked to them there was a wonderful transformation. Tears rolled down many faces. While Mrs. Booth sang "You've Carried Your Burden," twenty-five souls rose to their feet and asked for her prayers, and immediately there was a general uprising until sixty were standing.

After this meeting Mrs. Booth had a personal interview with aftry of the two hundred men who are members of her V. P. L. league. To some she took news from home, to some she carried new hope, and to all sunshine.

MR. AND MRS. TERRY'S DINNER.

Mr. and Mrs. Francisco Terry, of Paris, who passed last summer at Newport and the autumn passed last summer at Newport and the autumn at Lenox, gave a dinner party at Delmonico's new cstablishment last night. The meal was served in one of the private rooms. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. Burrall Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oelrichs, Mr. and Mrs. W. Storr Wells, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Alexandre, Mr. and Mrs. Carlos M. de Heredia. Miss Leary, Miss Van Alen, Miss Davies, the Misses Ives. Miss Edith Clapp, Miss Rutherfurd. Miss Terry, Chauncey M. Depew, James Otls, Emilio Terry, James J. Van Alen, Farnando Yanaga, David Wolfe Bishop, jr., Robert C. Sands, E. A. Muller Ury and Cortlandt Field Bishop. Mr. and Mrs. Terry will not return to Parls until after the holidays.